and his famous Red Raleigh

The man and the bicycle, who together have brought great prestige to the British cycle industry and the sport of cycling, by winning the World's Professional Sprint Championship for three successive years —
1949 · 1950 · 1951

REG. says — Take my advice. Buy a Raleigh Lenton Sports — There is no finer machine of its class on the market.
